Journey's anxious to perform...but they need their instruments in order to play! Each instrument is on a different planet, so before the concert can begin, you need to help the band members complete some tricky tasks to gain possession of their drums...guitars...piano...even the mike! But that's just the start. Next they have to use their instruments to ward off attackers and make it to the concert!

Meet The Band...

There's five members in all and in order to get them safely on stage your help is instrumental!

Steve Smith, Drums

Steve doesn't want to miss a beat...so he's got to jump on a series of floating drums. The first jump turns the drum blue...the second makes the drum disappear! Once all the drums are blue, Steve's set becomes a deadly weapon to combat attackers!

Ross Vallory, Bass Guitar

Ross must jump on and off rising levels to reach the top of the screen. Once he's successful, his guitar will keep the enemy in place!

AND TAKE IN A BONUS CONCERT!

Once Journey has collected their instruments, the concert begins! But this is no passive audience! A gang of groupies would love to get their hands on the band... and only you can keep them from stampeding the stage. Successfully maneuver the band's manager back and forth and the grapping groupies bounce off his stomach. But once the groupies sneak past, they'll rush the stage... Journey will leap off... and the concert comes to a deadening halt!

Steve Perry, Singer

Steve's task is to travel down the screen and maneuver through a maze of opening and closing gates. His microphone then becomes a gun that will help him blast his way to the top.

Neal Schon, Guitar

Neal must fight the laws of gravity to gain possession of his guitar! Guide him down the treacherous tunnel with the help of jet propulsion. But don't let him touch the sides! Once he makes it to the bottom, his guitar can help propel him back to safety.
